

Online Video Disclaimer for Rockit Performing Arts

Rockit Performing Arts (RPA) strictly prohibits the recording, photographing, or filming of any events, performances, or classes that include RPA students; by students, parents, carers, guardians, or members of the general public. This policy is in place to protect our students and comply with:

- Child Safety Regulations: Protecting the privacy and security of our students
- Intellectual Property Rights: Respecting copyright and licensing requirements
- Music Licensing Laws: Adhering to Australian music copyright regulations.

Promotional Media Policy

RPA staff may occasionally photograph or film classes and events for promotional purposes. Families who do not wish to be included in such promotional footage must:

- Explicitly inform RPA staff at the time of student enrolment
- Submit a written request to opt-out of promotional media collection

Key Restrictions

- No unauthorized photography or video recording is permitted at any RPA event
- Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action
- All media rights are reserved exclusively by Rockit Performing Arts

By participating in RPA programs, all parties agree to abide by these media and privacy guidelines.
